DRUG POLICY

Use of illicit drugs, on or off the job, can affect employees' health, safety, and job performance and could erode public and government confidence in the Port. While the Port has no right to intrude unnecessarily upon the private lives of its employees, it must ensure that employees report to work in a condition which will enable them to perform their duties safely and efficiently. The Port must also meet those requirements placed on it by regulatory agencies.

The Port requires drug screening tests for all prospective employees as part of the hiring process. These tests are a pre-employment requirement and apply to all positions, regular, temporary, work study, and interns (paid or non-paid). Urine samples are taken and analyzed at an independent medical laboratory. Positive test results are confirmed by an alternate test method. Individuals with confirmed positive test results are ineligible for employment and will not be reconsidered for employment for 18 months. Drugs in the screening include marijuana (THC), cocaine, opiates, amphetamines, barbiturates, and other illicit drugs.

Individuals taking the tests sign a consent form allowing release of the test results to the Port. Like other medical records, drug screening tests are confidential information. Access to test results within the Port is on a need-to-know basis.

I acknowledge this policy and consent to the testing.
